INSTRUCTIONS

1. This return is required to be submitted by all Companies which have accepted deposits or have deposits outstanding from the public (i.e., other than those which are excluded under instructions 2 below) as on the date of the return i.e. March 31, 1966 or September 30, 1966.
2. For the purpose of these returns, the term 'deposit' means any deposit of money with and includes any amount borrowed by the company at interest or payable at a premium, but excludes (a) its secured loans, (b) subscriptions in respect of shares, stocks, bonds and debentures offered by the company (including calls or deposits received in advance), (c) any advance received against orders for goods or services or any money received in trust or any money in transit, (d) loans from banking institutions or registered money-lenders, and (e) loans guaranteed by the company's managing agents, secretaries and treasurers or directors.
3. In Parts A, B and C of the return, the number of accounts should be given in full figures and the amounts of deposits should be given in thousands of rupees. Amounts should be rounded off to the nearest thousand and three zeros omitted. Thus, an amount of Rs. 4,560 should be shown as 5 and not as 4.6 or 5,000.
4. In Part C of the return, for each specific rate of interest the amount of deposit taken at that rate is to be shown. For example, the rate of interest may be shown at, say, 5% for 2,00,000, 5½% for 5,00,000, 6% for 8,00,000. If, however the rates of interest offered are at 5½%, 5½%, 6½% respectively, a separate sheet of paper may be attached to indicate the specific rates of interest thus offered together with the amount of deposit against each rate of interest.
5. A range of interest rates e.g., 3 to 5 per cent or 4 to 7 per cent should not be shown; any return showing such a range of interest rates will be treated as invalid and the Company concerned will have to submit a fresh return showing a specific rate of interest for each amount of deposit.
6. The return should be submitted and continue to be submitted in relation to the position as on March 31 and September 30 each year, but not later than 30th April, and 31st October respectively. The returns showing position as on March 31, 1966 should be submitted not later than May 31, 1966*.
7. Please attach to this completed form a copy of your latest Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account.

*The returns, after completion should be sent to the Chief Officer, Department of Non-Banking Companies, Reserve Bank of India, 15, Netaji Subhas Road, Post Box No 571, Calcutta-1.

NOTE :—For each specific rate of interest, the amount of deposit is to be shown. If more than one specific rate of interest is offered for deposits of the same maturity, the total amount (comprising possibly different maturities) relating to each specific rate will have to be shown separately. Any range of interest for any one amount e. g., 3 to 5 per cent or 4 to 7 per cent, should not be shown. Any return showing such a range of interest will be treated as invalid and the company concerned will have to submit a fresh return showing a specific rate of interest for each amount. The total of item III of Part C must tally with the total of item III in Parts A and B.

1. This return is required to be submitted by all Companies which have accepted deposits or have deposits outstanding from the public (i.e., other than those which are excluded under instructions 2 below) as on the date of the return i.e. March 31, 1966 or September 30, 1966.
2. For the purpose of these returns, the term 'deposit' means any deposit of money with and includes any amount borrowed by the company at interest or payable at a premium, but excludes (a) its secured loans, (b) subscriptions in respect of shares, stocks, bonds and debentures offered by the company (including calls or deposits received in advance), (c) any advance received against orders for goods or services or any money received in trust or any money in transit, (d) loans from banking institutions or registered moneylenders, and (e) loans guaranteed by the company's managing agents, secretaries and treasurers or directors.
3. In Parts, A, B and C of the return, the number of accounts should be given in full figures and the amounts of deposits should be given in thousands of rupees. Amounts should be rounded off to the nearest thousand and three zeros omitted. Thus, an amount of Rs. 4,560 should be shown as 5 and not as 4.6 or 5,000.
4. In Part C of the return, for each specific rate of interest the amount of deposit taken at that rate is to be shown. For example, the rate of interest may be shown at, say, 5% for 2,00,000, 5½% for 5,00,000, 6% for 8,00,000. If, however, the rates of interest offered are at 5½%, 5½%, 6½% respectively, a separate sheet of paper may be attached to indicate the specific rates of interest thus offered together with the amount of deposit against each rate of interest.
5. A range of interest rates e.g., 3 to 5 per cent or 4 to 7 per cent should not be shown; any return showing such a range of interest rates will be treated as invalid and the Company concerned will have to submit a fresh return showing a specific rate of interest for each amount of deposit.
6. The return should be submitted and continue to be submitted in relation to the position as on March 31, and September 30 each year, but not later than 30th April and 31st October respectively. The returns showing position as on March 31, 1966 should be submitted not later than May 31, 1966.*
7. Please attach to this completed form a copy of your latest Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account.

INSTRUCTIONS

- For the purpose of this return, details of all shares, debentures and other securities whether held on investment account or stock in trade should be given.
- Investments in shares and debentures of companies are to be grouped according to the principal business of the company concerned. Kindly supply on a separate sheet the scrip-wise details of investments in shares and debentures.
- Amounts should be rounded off to the nearest thousand and three zeros omitted. Thus, an amount of Rs. 4,560 should be shown as 5 and not as 4.6 or 5,000.
- In part A of the return, the face value for partly paid shares should be the amount paid-up as on March 31 of the relevant year. In case any shares are not quoted on the market, the value as certified by the managing directors or other competent authority should be included under the column 'market value'.
- In part B, purchase cost or sale proceeds as shown in brokers contract (exclusive of transfer fees, stamp duty and brokerage) should be shown. Net investments relate to the net position of purchases minus sales (including redemptions). Depreciation allowed or revaluations of investments made for the purpose of the balance sheet should not be adjusted here. Amounts paid for subscription to new issues (other than rights issues) about which allotment intimation is yet to be received from the company concerned should not be included but shown separately in a footnote at the end of the return.
- The return should be submitted and continue to be submitted showing the position for each year commencing from 1st April and ending with 31st March. The return for the year ended March 31, 1966 should be submitted not later than May 31, 1966. The subsequent returns should be submitted not later than one month from the date to which they relate.

The returns, after completion should be sent to the Chief Officer, Department of Non-Banking Companies, Reserve Bank of India, 15 Netaji Subhas Road, Post Box No. 571, Calcutta-1.
